for justice of the peace of the new township at the final election next Tuesday, Judge Carroll has been honored by being made vice president of the Farmers and Merchants Bank at Gardena. He has been content for this institution throughout its reorganization period, and his services in this behalf were rewarded by his election to this position of trust. It was largely under his supervision and direction that a plan of reorganization was worked out for this bank, which on October 15 reopened for business without restriction, thereby releasing nearly $200,000 in deposits, which had been tied up since March of last year. This bank was the first state bank to reopen with federal aid furnished through the Reconstruction Finance Corporation, and its depositors are now insured by the Federal Deposit Insurance Corporation of Washington, D. C.

Torrance Assembly Initiates Members

Several candidates will be initiated into the Torrance Assembly United Artisans at the next meeting, Wednesday, November 7. The new group which was instituted on October 17, has already a large list of prospects and promises to become one of the most flourishing lodges in this district.

A Halloween dance was given at the Woman's clubhouse last evening with a good attendance and a jolly time is reported. A majority of votes in one of the other townships, as well as a substantial vote in most of the other sections of the new township. His friends say that his judicial qualifications and temperament, and the experience acquired as judge pro tem of the Los Angeles superior court, and a three years assignment to the Los Angeles municipal court, ideally fit him for this position, and predict he will be elected next Tuesday. As evidence of his fairness and ability, it is pointed out that during his entire term in the Gardena justice court, jury trial has been waived in all cases, and none of his decisions have been reversed by a higher court.

The time when knighthood flourished is long past, but its spirit lives on in books and in the minds of boys who like tales of brave knights and their bold deeds. Here are some of the books about knights which you will find at your county library branch.

Story of Roland by Baldwin The full exploits of Roland, greatest knight of the middle ages, and the story of his brothers-in-arms, Oliver and Ogier the Dane. Shadow of the Crown by Bolton After he has gone through fire at the siege of Malta and has proved himself capable of standing firm not only under physical torture but under calumny and disgrace, a young Spanish lad is accepted as a true knight. Legends of Charlemagne by Bullfinch

Stories of Roland and other paladins of Charlemagne's court. Island of the Mighty by Colman How in ancient days King Arthur and his valiant knights rode through the Isle of Britain, overcoming evil and rescuing all those in distress. Famous Legends by Crommelin

The deeds of King Arthur, Roland, Robin Hood, Brian Boru, Sigurd and Erling, King Robert of Sicily and the Pied Piper. Gauntlet of Dunmore by Daniel The adventures of a boy who restores his family's fortunes and wins his spurs at the battle of Agincourt. Through war and treachery, Edward Dunmore is helped by his faithful servant and friend, Robin the Archer. Wonder Book of Old Romance by Dutton

Gwalain, a truly noble knight without fear and without reproach, is the hero of one story in this book. The "Fair Unknown" and "Guy of Warwick" are also tales of knighthood. Sir Moryak by French

Of the warfare of good against evil, of knightly valor and sorcery overcome. With Spurs of Gold by Greene Stories of Roland, the Cid, Richard Coeur-de-Lion, Sir Phillip Sidney, Chevalier Bayard, of the crusades and of the troubadours. Singing Sword by Hyde

As a squire in the service of Charlemagne, Ogier distinguishes himself in battle and at an early age wins his knighthood. With his wonderful sword, Courtain, he performs many deeds of chivalry and valor, rescuing a lad from torture in a haunted castle, and freeing Denmark from the oppression of the Saxons. Page, Esquire and Knight by Lansing

This is the story of knighthood. It tells the meaning of the degrees of knighthood, how a lad progressed from a page to a knight, and describes the great quests and tourneys. Out of the Flame by Lowmsbery

Flower de Bayard, nephew of the great Chevalier, served as page and squire at a great French court of the middle ages. Book of King Arthur and His Noble Knights by Malory

There was seen a large stone, four-square, like marble, and in the midst of it was an anvil of steel, a foot high. In this was stuck by the point a beautiful sword, with naked blade, and there were letters written in gold about the sword, which said thus: "Whoso pulleth this sword out of this stone and anvil is rightly king of all England." When Knights Were Bold by Tappan

The customs of knights and life in castles and manors during the middle ages. "Yes" Vote On No. 6 Is Recommended By Capt. Frank Laski

Endorsement of county charter amendment No. 6, which makes fire protection a mandatory part of county government, has been given by the executive council of the Affiliated Teachers Organizations, the Central Labor Council of Los Angeles, and a large number of civic leaders representing all walks of life, according to Capt. Frank Laski of the Lomita county fire department, who is urging local citizens to vote "Yes" on county charter amendment No. 6.

Alice Burger Is Gold Seal Bearer Alice Burger, a student from Torrance, is included among California high school honor graduates attending the University of Southern California who are California Gold Seal Bearers. That high scholarship and extra-curricular activities go hand in hand at U. S. C. is shown by a survey which revealed that the high school honor students have achieved the highest possible positions in student government.

Would Be Suicide Sought Aid ST. LOUIS, Mo. (U.P.)—Paul F. Helmsch, dependent over being unemployed, shot himself through the head in an attempt to commit suicide. He regained consciousness two hours later, decided he wasn't ready to die and walked two miles to City hospital for treatment. He is recovering.

Firemen Start Work On Plans For Christmas

Decorated Tree, Free Matinee, Vaudeville Acts and Candy For Children

Already plans are in the making for the annual Christmas tree and celebration, sponsored by the Torrance fire department. The affair will be held this year on December 21, and will be an afternoon party, with a free matinee for the children at the Torrance Theatre, thanks to the kindly co-operation of Manager DeWitt Van Derlip. A suitable Christmas picture will be shown. Free candy will be distributed to the youngsters as they leave the theatre. The performance will start at 2 o'clock and will probably be concluded at five.

In addition to the theatre program, the SERRA playground directors will furnish an orchestra and some good acts of vaudeville. The municipal Christmas tree in the small park in front of the theatre will be usual, be brilliantly lighted and decorated.

Funeral Services For Mrs. W. Smith

Mrs. Emma May Smith, age 65, passed away at her home, 2828 25th street, South Torrance, on Saturday, October 27. She was born in the state of Iowa, and had resided in California 22 years, in Lomita for the past 12 years. She is survived by her husband, Wesley Smith; one son, Ralph E. Smith, of Long Beach; one daughter, Mrs. Rowena Airey, of Lomita. Funeral services were held Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock from Stone & Myers chapel, with interment at Roosevelt Memorial Park.

J. Arnold Leeds Dies In Hollywood

J. Arnold Leeds, age 50, a resident and restaurant owner of Hollywood, passed away Saturday at the Hollywood Receiving hospital. Funeral services were held this afternoon from Brown's Mortuary in Los Angeles, with interment at Forest Lawn. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Grace Leeds; one son, Jack, residing at 501 North Los Palms; two brothers, William and Richard, of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Veronica Reed, of Florida, Mrs. Ariana McGraw, of Los Angeles.

HALLOWEEN DANCE Lomita Artisans observed Halloween with a costume party at their lodge rooms last Monday evening. Dr. M. C. Woods, master artisan, was awarded first prize for the best men's costume, and several other prizes were distributed.

Idaho Landmark Razed BOISE, Idaho. (U.P.)—A historic Idaho landmark has been destroyed. Wreckers recently completed the work of a summer cyclone in demolishing the Moorish mansion where many present Idaho grandparents learned to swim. It is said no one knew exactly how old the building was.

Kitten Was Two In One TAUNTON, Mass. (U.P.)—"What has four eyes, two mouths, one head, four legs and one tail?" A kitten, born at the Mt. Hope Fishing Company plant, one of a litter of five, had this combination.

Brother of Dr. Wood Killed In Accident

Dr. M. C. Wood, 2244 241st street, South Torrance, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Wood, of Etiwanda, and Mrs. Gladys Bloom, of Brawley, left last night for Gray Eagle Camp, north of Sacramento, on receipt of news that their brother, William Wood, had met death in an accident. No further details were learned of the affair, the telegram merely stating the fact of his death.

Wood has been employed for the past 11 years at a logging camp. He leaves, besides the brothers and sister named above, his widow, and his father, Thomas J. Wood, who resides at Loomis, California.

Iseman Funeral Services Held At Inglewood Tuesday

Funeral services for Clifford Iseman, who was killed several days ago in an automobile accident near Denver, were held Tuesday, October 30, from the Grace chapel at Inglewood. Interment was made at Inglewood Park cemetery. The body had been shipped to Stone & Myers mortuary in Torrance.

Iseman, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Iseman, of Lomita, was en route to the east in company with Mrs. Peggy Newman of El Prado Court, who was planning to visit her people in an eastern city. She was injured in the accident but not seriously, and returned to Torrance to attend the funeral services.
